

St. Catharine's College Graduate Symposium

FEBRUARY 17 2019

09:30-16:30

MCGRATH CENTRE

KEYNOTES

Professor Peter St George-Hyslop

Professor Peter St George-Hyslop is one of the world's top neurodegenerative disease researchers. His lab has discovered key genes and proteins associated with Alzheimer's Disease and has received recognition and several important awards throughout his career.

Dr. Luca Aiello

Dr. Luca Aiello is a Senior Research Scientist at Nokia Bell Labs in Cambridge. He is the co-founder of goodcitylife.org initiative, where he developed the Happy Maps, which uses social media to capture the ambiance of cities and build alternative map routes based on human emotions.

Léonie de Jonge

Léonie de Jonge is a PhD candidate at the Department of Politics and International Studies at the University of Cambridge. Her research interests include European politics, political participation, populism, and radical right parties. Léonie's talk at the Symposium will focus on Brexit.

Panel Discussion

The Executive MBA program at the Judge School of Business is designed specifically for senior executives. These students come from all over the world to study one weekend per month. Cambridge EMBA students, Ariel Scroggins and Yulia Kuznetsova, will share their experiences and key decisions that have led them to where they are now in both their academic and professional lives.

CALL FOR ABSTRACTS

Students who are interested in giving a short presentation on their work should submit an abstract of no more than 200 words by January 20th 2019. Those selected to speak will be invited to a formal dinner at the OCR after the Symposium.

Submit abstracts via the registration link:

<https://mcr.caths.cam.ac.uk/symposium/register>

ATTEND THE SYMPOSIUM

Register at <https://mcr.caths.cam.ac.uk/symposium/register>
Tickets are £2 and include lunch and refreshments

St Catharine's College
Cambridge

UNIVERSITY OF CAMBRIDGE